

CARIBBEAN, DEALS, GEOGRAPHY, LUXURY, THEME

Cancun resort offers high-priced infinity package

Posted by Paul Kandarian March 20, 2014 07:30 AM

By Paul E. Kandarian, Globe Correspondent

The price is high - $27,000 for two – but true romantics get a lot at the new Grand Residences Riviera Cancun in Mexico, an all-suite resort and member of the Leading Hotels of the World.

The Grand Diamond Infinity package features four nights in a 5,720-square-foot suite on the beach, with private pool and Jacuzzi; a diamond eternity band in 14-karat white gold; a personal driver, butler and chef, on call 24 hours a day; activities such as daily couple's massage and panoramic helicopter tour; Bvlgari amenities, and more.

The package kicks off with a private luxury car ride from the airport and private check-in and introduction to your personal staff. Gourmet meals are made in suite, accompanied by strawberries and Cristal champagne. All beverages, including branded spirits and premium wines, come with the package. Other activities include mixology classes, wine tastings, golf, and a sunset catamaran cruise.

The package is good for four-night stays through Dec. 31, and the price includes taxes and fees. The resort suggests making reservations at least 15 days in advance. For information visit www.grandresidencesrivieracancun.com, email reservations@grandresidencesrivieracancun.com or call 855-381-4340.

http://www.boston.com/travel/blog/2014/03/cancun_resort_offering_infinity_package.html