6 New Caribbean Hot Spots

St. Vincent and the Grenadines

If it's an intimate island getaway you seek, St. Vincent and the Grenadines—made up of 32 islands, some of which, including Petit St. Vincent and Palm Island, double as private resorts—is a good place to find it, and a new international airport slated for early 2015 will make getting here easier than ever. Canouan is the island to watch this year, as Pink Sands Club readies to open there with some of the most sought-after villas in the region. From the owner of Barbados' exclusive Sandy Lane, Pink Sands Club is expected to attract as many celebrities to its luxurious digs as its sister resort does.
