KABIR BEDI VISITS TRINIDAD FOR THE WORLD PREMIERE OF BAZODEE THE MOVIE

Port of Spain, Trinidad – September 23, 2015 - Bollywood superstar Kabir Bedi is in Trinidad for the world-premiere of Bazodee the Movie. Bedi stars alongside Trinidadian soca artiste Machel Montano in the feature film Bazodee, which premieres on September 23, 2015. In addition to his busy schedule of public appearances in promotion of the new movie, Bedi graciously accepted the Tourism Development Company's (TDC) invitation to tour some places of interest in Trinidad. His itinerary included visits to the Temple by the Sea, the Caroni Bird Sanctuary, the 85 feet-tall Hanuman Murti, the city of Port of Spain and the world-famous Maracas Bay.

Bazodee is one of the films being featured at the Trinidad and Tobago Film Festival 2015. The movie, set in Trinidad, features Machel Montano as Lee, a rugged soca singer who falls in love with Anita, the daughter of Bede's character, Ram – a secretly deep-in-debt businessman. Anita meets Lee, who is performing at her engagement party and sparks fly. Soon, the two fall in love. Nikhil, Anita's malevolent, future brother-in-law, notices; once he discovers the truth about Ram's finances, he threatens to expose everything, forcing Anita to fight for the wealth that truly matters—love.

Bedi, who has also achieved success in Hollywood and Europe's film industry, is most noted for his role as the villain Gobinda in the 1983 James Bond film, Octopussy and as Emperor Shah Jahan in the movie Taj Mahal. Since 1982, he has been a voting member of the prestigious Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, who are responsible for presenting the Oscar awards. He is also a voting member of the Screen Actors Guild.
