Hyatt Regency Trinidad hosted Caribbean Desalination Association 2016 Biennial Conference & Exposition

The conference took place from May 31 - June 3, themed "Developing and Affording New Water Sources"

Port of Spain, Trinidad – June 15, 2016 – The Caribbean’s leading business hotel, Hyatt Regency Trinidad, hosted the Caribbean Desalination Association’s four-day conference promoting membrane technology. Themed “Developing and Affording New Water Sources,” sessions included Technologies & Innovations, Desalination Using Green Energy, Financing & Economics, SWRO Applications, Planning & Management and Case Studies for Membrane Applications.

Hyatt Regency Trinidad won the bid to host this event, which was vied for from other Caribbean and global destinations. Past Caribbean Desalination Association conferences have been held in Italy, Mexico and Brazil and the next conference will be held in Puerto Rico. Throughout this conference, various representatives of Trinidad & Tobago companies presented on the actions that they are initiating relating to the topics discussed.

“This conference was an excellent opportunity for Trinidad & Tobago to showcase how companies located here are taking part in protecting the environment with new technologies,” explained Heather Doughlin, Director of Events at Hyatt Regency Trinidad. “The fact that we won the bid to host this important environmental conference shows that our destination is considered innovative by consistently exploring ‘greener’ initiatives.”

Various exhibitors including GE Water and Process Technologies, LG Water Solutions and Republic Bank Limited sponsored the event, educating attendees about their contributions throughout the conference.

Located in the heart of downtown Port of Spain, Hyatt Regency Trinidad sits at the epicenter of the country’s business district and is well-equipped to host major meetings and events of this nature. Easy access from major U.S. cities and many Caribbean countries, as well as its expansive state-of-the-art meeting facilities routinely make it a popular choice with business travelers, industry leaders and local businesses.
