OCEAN CLUB RESORTS WELCOMES SPRING BLOOMING WITH BIG SAVINGS
The Award-Winning Resort in Turks and Caicos Premieres Its Complete Landscape Re-bloom in Time for Spring Travel

PROVIDENCIALES, Turks & Caicos – March 1, 2018 – Ocean Club Resorts, the pair of award winning island resorts that leave guests wishing they could extend their stay, is pleased to announce that the resort has been fully restored to better than ever. The orchids and entire landscape (synonymous with the Ocean Club Resort name) on both resort locations are back in full bloom in time for the upcoming spring travel season.

Following one of the harshest hurricane seasons Ocean Club Resorts has seen, the resorts were able to reopen within two months of being hit by both Hurricanes Irma and Maria and are now ready to present the newly blooming landscape.

“Both Ocean Club and Ocean Club West were able to reopen rather quickly after each storm passed through the tireless efforts of our entire staff and support of the surrounding island community,” said Wilbert Mason, Managing Director of Ocean Club Resorts. “While each resort’s greenery was carefully tended to in order to flourish at a fast-paced rate as well, our signature orchids have taken a bit longer to bloom and we are thrilled to welcome them back as part of our healthy and thriving landscape.”

Ocean Club Resorts takes pride on ensuring that each and every detail of a travelers’ stay is not only held to the highest standard but also presented in a simple yet elegant manner and allows guests to see the beauty offered in the natural aspects of the island.

Travelers looking to experience the fully restored resort – internally as well as externally - and surrounding island area at an affordable rate are able to do so with the “Experience The Mangroves” package offer. Starting at $1,413 total, the travel offer includes a four night/five day stay for two guests at Ocean Club (not Ocean Club West), a tour of the mangroves via SUP board or kayak and daily breakfast. This package is based on standard room occupancy (additional guest pricing available upon request), may not be combined with any other offer and must be booked by December 21, 2018.
